Dear Bob:

Thanks for your letter of 30 August. I understand why a map would be inadequate for our purposes and I agree with you that we should make arrangements which take account of the possibility that our operations will be picked up even if they are confined to a pretty empty area.

These arrangements we have not yet made because I have not yet had an opportunity to meet with General Andrew. I am going to be out in his part of the country, however, on 26 September and will make definite arrangements to see him in the course of that trip unless he is going to be away from his Headquarters. I wonder if it would be too much trouble for you to find out whether he will be at  on Tuesday, 27 September and if so whether I could call on him sometime that day to discuss this matter. Perhaps we could firm up this arrangement when I see you in this city during the week beginning the 19th.

25X1A

My warmest personal regards.

Yours,

Richard M. Bissell, jr.
